College Park Marriott Hotel & Conference Center ▶ 3501 University Blvd East, Hyattsville, MD 20783

▶ At the end of last school year we had a retreat where we did work on determining the problems we are facing and ways PGCEA needed to be stronger. As a follow up, this conference is about building union power in our school buildings and the community!

We will hear from classroom educators from around the country about how they built union power in the midst of troubling circumstances and there will be workshops.

Come out a join us for workshops to achieve
