PGCEA NECC

As of August 2025 The Fair Campaign Practice Code is being updated by the NECC. When complete, the updated document will be posted and take effect immediately.

FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICE CODE

In an attempt to ensure that PGCEA elections are conducted fairly and properly, and to ensure that Association campaigns do not interfere with the instruction of students, the Nominations Elections and Credentials Commission (NECC) hereby adopts this Fair Campaign Practice Code. All potential candidates are required to review these codes prior to submitting their Letter of Intent to Run & Nomination Form.

I. Nomination Submission

- A. By September 30th of each year the NECC will declare vacant positions and post General Election schedule and deadlines on the PGCEA website.
- B. Self-Nomination and Letter of Intent to Run forms will be posted on the website for electronic submission. The submission deadline will be posted on the NECC schedule.
 - 1. All required questions must be answered
 - 2. The Letter of Intent to Run must be completed

II. Campaigning

- A. A candidate may not campaign during the professional workday as defined in the Negotiated Agreement. This would include the use of telephone, email, and other electronic medium.
- B. Campaigning may not begin until after the slate is announced at the January Representative Council meeting (The candidate slate may be announced during a called special December meeting). Literature may be passed out at any Representative Council meeting following the announcement of the slate of nominees.
- C. Endorsement of candidates is permitted.
- D. Candidates may be endorsed by individuals or groups.
 - 1. Endorsements of candidates may be made by any PGCEA officer and/or PGCEA Board member only if they do so as individuals, independent of the Association.
 - 2. A candidate may not use material written or spoken by a Board member or an officer of the Association as part of his/her campaign if the material refers to or bears the letterhead of the officer's title. However, candidates or their designees may only speak for themselves during their speeches to the Representative Council.

- E. Candidates should stress issues in their campaign.
- F. A candidate is responsible for any materials circulated by his/her campaign workers or campaign committee. All campaign materials shall bear the signature of the candidate certifying his/her approval of said material. Materials without a signature shall not be distributed. (Any material submitted via the Self-Nomination form will be considered approved by the candidate.)
- G. Candidates should not use Prince George's County Public School's technology for campaign purposes.
- H. Use of the Prince George's County Public School's email system for campaigning is expressly prohibited.
- I. A candidate running for President, Vice President, Treasurer or Board of Directors shall only declare for one (1) office.

III. Withdrawals

Any candidate wishing to withdraw shall submit in writing to the NECC his/her decision to do so. If a candidate withdraws on the date designated for the NECC to announce the names of eligible candidates, ballots must be reproduced to reflect the names of the official candidates only. The cost of reproducing previously printed ballots must be borne by the candidate that withdraws. In the event a candidate withdraws after the announcement date, the NECC reserves the right to reschedule an election.

Refer to Nominations and Elections Schedule for withdrawal date.

IV. Finances

FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICE CODE

Monetary limits for expenditures for campaign purposes shall be $1500 per candidate for all offices such as President, Vice President, Treasurer and Board of Directors.

- A. Contributions from individuals and supporting groups (other than the PGCEA flier) shall be included in these monetary limits.
- B. Contributions or anything of value, goods or services donated to or made available to candidates shall be included in these expenditure limits.
 - 1. Examples: printing costs, graphic work, photography, hall rental(s), and refreshments.
 - 2. Donated volunteer time is not included.
- C. A financial statement must be received by the NECC on the form provided. Forms must be delivered to Prince George's County Educators' Association (PGCEA) by 5:00 p.m. on the date stated in the Schedule of Nominations and Elections.
 - 1. Candidates shall use the designated financial statement form sent out by the NECC.
 - 2. Only one financial statement is required; however, it shall be complete and inclusive of all campaign expenses including contributions and other sources of funds.
 - 3. All candidates must submit a financial statement regardless of the amount spent.
 - 4. Refer to Nominations and Elections Schedule for the due date.

V. Publicity

Check Schedule for Regular Nominations and Elections of PGCEA Officers for necessary dates. Deadline dates will be strictly enforced.

- A. For the PGCEA Election "Educator" publication, only those candidates who have submitted Letters of Intent to run for office by the specified deadline and who have been certified as eligible to run by the NECC may submit a biographical sketch with a photograph and a statement explaining why he/she is seeking the office. Said biographical sketch and statement will total no more than 500 words.

FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICE CODE

1. The PGCEA Election “Educator” shall not contain biographical sketches, statements, or photographs of write-in candidates.
 2. A biographical sketch should include current position, number of years in other school systems, NEA, MSEA, PGCEA and other organizational activities.
 3. Along with the biographical sketch, candidates may submit a small headshot photograph electronically.
 4. All materials must be submitted electronically.
 5. The NECC reserves all rights to review and approve all submitted materials. For continuity purposes, the original format and fonts are subject to change to coincide with the publication.
- B. At the Association’s expense, flyers will be reproduced according to the number of PGCEA faculty representatives at each site. The faculty representative will be responsible for distributing or posting the flyer. PGCEA will be responsible for providing each site, one flyer per Faculty Representative entitlement based on the formula in use at that time. (During times of a pandemic or other natural disasters, the NECC reserves the right to post candidate biographies and flyers to the PGCEA website.)
1. All materials must be submitted electronically to neccchair@pgcea.org or the email address specified by the NECC.
 2. Candidates may provide layout material to go on 8 ½ x 11 one page one sided flyer. Material must be complete ready to be copied.
 3. PGCEA staff may not be used to help set up the flyer.
 4. All candidate flyers reproduced by PGCEA will all be packaged together and sent out at the same time via email.
- C. All campaign literature will be properly identified as official literature from the candidates or from the candidates’ campaign committee and bear the signature of the candidate certifying his/her approval of said material.
- D. The PGCEA logo or facsimile cannot be used on the flyers or any campaign literature.
- E. All campaign materials to go through the Pony must be sent from PGCEA Center and must be Pony ready. (Must be ready for delivery placed in proper pony envelope.)

FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICE CODE

One copy of all campaign materials must be emailed to neccchair@pgcea.org or the email address specified by the NECC.

F. Candidate Speeches

1. At the appropriate Representative Council meeting, candidates for office will be introduced and allowed to speak for three (3) minutes each.
2. In the event a candidate cannot be present to speak, the candidate may select a designee to speak on his/her behalf. However, the NECC must be notified in writing before the start of the Rep Council meeting.
3. Candidates have the option of submitting a three (3) minute video recording to be posted on the PGCEA website prior to the election.

All oral communications must be followed by written confirmation.

Representatives may be allowed to ask questions of the candidates. These procedures will be handled by the NECC.

VI. Results

A. Notification

1. Candidates will be notified of election results via email or other form of communication indicated by the NECC

B. Appeals

In accordance with Article 10, Section 3 of the By-laws of PGCEA, Inc., the following will be adhered to:

“Any member may request a hearing before the Nominations, Elections, and Credentials Commission to appeal its denial of his/her nominations, to report any election irregularities, or challenge any other Commission action within five (5) school days of the act or incident. Upon receipt of a proper appeal, the Commission shall hold a hearing within five (5) school days and render a decision. The Commission chairperson may request legal counsel or other assistance through the President.” All appeals must be made in writing to the NECC, c/o PGCEA Center, 8008 Marlboro Pike, Forestville, Maryland 20747., or emailed to neccchair@pgcea.org or other email indicated by the NECC.

FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICE CODE

C. Challenges/Recount

Any candidate who desires a recount must put the request in writing to the NECC Chairperson at the PGCEA Center, 8008 Marlboro Pike, Forestville, Maryland 20747 within five (5) days after the candidates for the same office has been notified of his/her status.

1. Any concerns must be submitted in writing to the NECC (necchair@pgcea.org) or any email indicated by the NECC

If there is a difference of 1% or less in the vote count between and/or among candidates, the Association must bear the expense of any recount requested. If the difference is more than 1%, the candidate(s) bringing the challenge must bear the expense.

D. Election Violations and Disqualification

1. The NECC, an arm of the Representative Council, may declare null and void the election of a candidate who violates this Fair Campaign Practice Code, after appropriate notice and hearing was afforded the candidate. Such hearing must be made prior to certification of the election results. The NECC can declare the candidate disqualified or the election null and void. If the candidate is declared disqualified, he/she shall be so notified at the conclusion of the hearing. The candidate shall have the right to appeal to the Representative Council and shall notify the NECC of such intent in writing within five (5) days of his/her notification of the decision of the NECC. If the appeal is denied by the Representative Council, the NECC will conduct another election, if needed, immediately for the office left vacant.

Adopted by the Nominations, Elections and Credential Commission on December 14, 1981.

Revised and Approved: December 07, 2020
